

CITIES AND THE ENVIRONMENT | OVE ARUP FOUNDATION LECTURE SERIES

Cities are the magnets for more than half the world's population. "Cities and the Environment" is a public lecture series at LSE supported by the Ove Arup Foundation that identifies the challenging complexities of sustainable urbanism and uncovers the city solutions they hold.

TUESDAY 1 JUNE | 18.30 – 20.00

SHEIKH ZAYED THEATRE, NEW ACADEMIC BUILDING, LSE
54 LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS, LONDON, WC2A 3LJ

CLIMATE CHANGE: THE CITY SOLUTION

RITT BJERREGAARD

LORD MAYOR OF COPENHAGEN, 2006–2009

CHAIR: RICKY BURDETT, DIRECTOR, LSE CITIES

As Mayor of Copenhagen, Ritt Bjerregaard presided over the seminal UN COP15 Conference, implemented an affordable and sustainable housing scheme, continued to champion public transport, cycling and low emissions zones, prioritising quality of life and connectivity. These initiatives among other achievements demonstrate how cities can provide solutions to critical global challenges such as climate change.

Free and open to the public. No RSVP necessary. Contact events@lse.ac.uk for additional information.
